From the Tee Box...

The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 19th and 20th, 2008

Dear Friends:

Welcome again to 2008! I hope that the start of this new year finds you and your families doing well. As some of you know, I was sick off and on from Christmas up until the second week of January. I took last week (the week of the 7th) off just to relax and try to completely get over it. Now I'm back and I'm 100%. It was good to relax for a few days with my Mom and the rest of my family. Now, as I have returned and the new year is up and running, many things are happening. Our Councils of Ministries (for all 3 of our parishes) will be meeting during these next couple of weeks, the formation of the new St. Anne and Assumption Liturgy Committee is now complete, our bookkeepers are finishing up their end of the year reports, many youth ministry events are starting to happen, and religious education has started up again. These are just a few of the happenings in our church communities. I don't know about you, but the season of Advent, along with Christmas and New Year's, seem to have passed by so quickly. Some days, as I look back, it all seems like one big blur. For me, the end of 2007 seemed to be busier than ever. Still, it was a great joy to be able to celebrate it with you.

While it may be hard to believe, the start of the season of Lent is less than one month away. Can you believe that. This having been said, I would like to recommend that you consider reading an article that I came across while sitting in the waiting room of the doctor's office back in December. It's an article published by TIME Magazine, entitled, "Merry Hallowmas," and it reflects on the notion that sometimes, because of the fast pace of life, the seasons of the year (especially the holidays) seem to overlap, blur together, and lose their special meaning. If you have access to the internet, you can find the article online. I have included the link here. You can find it at: www.time.com. Just go to the website and in the search line type the words "Merry Hallowmas" (without the quotation marks) and it will take you right to it. If you do not have access to the internet, we have copies of the article available in the church office.

Other things to look for during the coming months: more adult education opportunities (including an intergenerational event for youth and adults to come together for the sharing of faith), as well as our parish mission with Doug Brummel in the Spring. Have a great week!

Sincerely,

Father Trey Nelson

The church office will be closed Monday, January 21, 2008 to observe Martin Luther King holiday.

Gracious God, you create us and love us; you make us to live together in a community. We thank you for Martin Luther King, Jr. and all your children who have been filled with your vision for our lives and who have worked to make bring your vision into reality. Fill us with your vision. Guide us to live by your vision, working to build the beloved community where everyone is welcomed, all are valued, power is shared, privilege is no more, and all your children know wholeness and well-being. Through Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.
