The Sixth Sunday of Easter
April 26th and 27th, 2008

Dear Friends:

Confirmation and First Eucharist: Our First Eucharist celebrations (for St. Anne, Assumption, and St. Philomena) have come and gone, but the excitement still remains! I want to thank Kathy, Mable, and all of our catechists again for helping our children prepare for this important moment in their lives. I truly enjoyed being a part of both. The excitement and happiness on the faces of our children, their parents, and grandparents touched me and all of us deeply. Congratulations again to this year's First Eucharist classes! And last night (April 21st) Bishop Muench was here with us for the Sacrament of Confirmation. It was awesome! The church was filled to capacity! Not only did our young people from all 3 parishes Confirm together, but we also had various ministries from all 3 churches come together to help plan the Mass and the reception which followed. Thank you again to our music ministries, Catholic Daughters, and Ladies Altar Societies for your hard work. Everything was beautiful. Let me say thanks again also to our Confirmation catechists: Stephanie and Roland Blanchard, Marvin Schwartzenburg, and Cindy Blanchard. During the Mass I said to everyone there that this year's class has come to mean something extra special to me. I truly meant what I said. These young men and women are some of the kindest, most compassionate, and courageous people I've ever met. Thank you for being the good and kind people that you are. You are truly a blessing and an encouragement to me.

Parish Mission with Doug Brummel: our 3-parish mission is this coming Wednesday and Thursday nights at St. Philomena Church at 6:47pm sharp! As I mentioned at Mass this past weekend, this is a “whole community celebration!” Parishioners of all ages will truly enjoy this mission experience. Take time to come out and “Lighten Up” with Doug Brummel and his cast of characters as he tells our Catholic story in a creative, light hearted way. I look forward to seeing you there.

Annual Blessing of Graduates: this weekend we also celebrate our annual blessing of high school graduates. Since my arrival here 11 years ago, it has been an informal tradition that many of our high school seniors attend 4:00pm Mass on the evening of their prom. This is something that our graduates themselves began doing on their own. Since this is prom weekend for at least one of our schools, we would like to recognize and ask God's blessing on our high school seniors. Congratulations to the Class of 2008!

Sincerely,

Fr. Trey Nelson

All deceased members of our church community.

COME ONE, COME ALL!!!

Immaculate Conception Chapel is celebrating her 150th year on Sunday, May 4, 2008 from 9:00am until 5:00pm & you are all invited to join the celebration!!

There will be a special 11:30am Mass, which will include the May Crowning. Children, bring flowers to place at the Blessed Virgin Mary statue.

Bring your lawn chairs and enjoy the day of free food, games for the children, door prizes, old church photographs, and lots of good, old fashioned reminiscing.

Call for volunteers: To assist with: 1) Baking goodies for the celebration; and 2) Helping with the celebration activities. Please contact Jane or Barbara to volunteer or if you have any questions.

Baptisms & Seminars

The next baptism seminar will be Tuesday, June 3 at 7:00 p.m. in the Landsmann Center.

Parents are to contact Mrs. Kathy Landry prior to the Baptismal Seminar at 369-2130.

Any questions regarding seminar, please call Mrs. Kathy Landry. Please call the church office to schedule baptism. Unless otherwise noted, baptisms always take place on the third Sunday of the month after the 9:15am Mass at Assumption Church.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

THE PRESENCE OF CHRIST

Today the Lord Jesus promises his fearful disciples, “I will come to you” (John 14:18). The Church’s sacraments are visible signs of the Lord Jesus continuing to “come to us” through the power of the Holy Spirit. Each time we share in Christ’s body and blood, he is made present through the Spirit. In a way, the Church’s sacramental life is like my experience of taking out a deck of cards and bending them back and forth in order to bring the memory of my grandmother to life. We take ordinary elements, like bread, wine, water, words, and oil, and when we accompany these elements with sacred gestures and words, we experience the very presence of Jesus Christ. As we look forward to Pentecost, let us grow in our awareness and love for the sacraments that bring us into contact with the Lord Jesus through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Today’s Readings: Acts 8:5–8, 14–17; Psalm 66:1–7, 16, 20; 1 Peter 3:15–18; John 14:15–21

A Prayer for Our Soldiers

Gracious God, we pray for our soldiers. Let Your grace be a protective shield, guarding them from harm and keeping them close to Your love and compassion. May we always remember that they are the ones who face the horrors and dangers of war first-hand. Help us honor them for their courage and care for them when there is damage to their bodies or spirit. When they are lonely and afraid, and long to be with those whom they love, fill their hearts with the sure knowledge of Your presence at all times, in war and peace. Let them feel, O God, deep in their hearts, that Your love is always there-boundlessly, unconditionally, and eternally. Amen.
