As we use the Sacred Scriptures for prayer, a good book to begin with is the Book of Psalms. On this Fourth Sunday of Advent, I share with you for reflection and meditation this adaptation from Psalm 33.

“Let all the earth fear the Lord; let all who dwell in the world show reverence. For he spoke and it came to be, commanded and it stood in place. The Lord foils the plan of nations, frustrates the designs of peoples. But the plan of the Lord stands forever, wise designs through all generations.”

“From the heavens the Lord looks down and observes the whole human race, surveying from the royal throne all who dwell on earth. The one who fashioned the hearts of them all, knows all their works.”

“Our soul waits for the Lord, who is our help and our shield. For in God our hearts rejoice; in your holy name we trust. May your kindness, Lord, be upon us; we have put our hope in you.”

Best wishes!

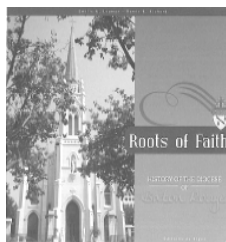

Fr. Joel

A Prayer for Our Soldiers

Almighty God, we commend to your gracious care and keeping all the men and women of our armed forces at home and abroad.

Defend them by day with your heavenly grace; strengthen them in their trials and temptations; give them courage to face the perils which beset them; and grant them a sense of your abiding presence wherever they may be; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
